

DestinyAsia
global consultancy

FORECAST FOR YEAR 2012

Year of the Dragon

壬辰

Flying Stars Feng Shui Forecast for Year 2012

The Flying Stars Feng Shui has the power to predict the fortune of your house or office. It enables you to discover what are the challenges or good tidings that will arrive at your house every year. Simply draw the imaginary lines of the 9 grid over your house plan to locate the location of your door, stove and bedroom. Please see example from the picture. In this case, the main door is located in Northeast sector. The star that flies to Northeast sector in 2012 is Star 9 which is an auspicious star that brings happy news.

What you need to do for the very first step now is to get a compass (you can find it in your smart phone too), stand in the middle of your house and then look into your compass to find out your house facing direction (façade).

With that, you can draw the lines and refer to the table to find out what is going to take place in 2012.

East - Love 文曲

Are you looking to increase your love luck? If yes, position your bed in the East corner of your room with your legs pointing towards the West direction. That special someone this year is going to knock on your door if your bedroom door is also located in this sector. Alternatively, you can usher in your romance by putting an air purifier or burning the scented candle at this Love corner.

Centred - Promotion 武曲

The energy here governs authority, power and career advancement. For those who are looking at climbing corporate ladder or hopping to receive more authority in work especially those in the uniformed service, you should use this sector more often such as positioning your working desk in this sector of your office.

Otherwise, keep the middle section of your home un-cluttered and tidy. It is not advisable to install a pond or water feature in the middle of your house.

West - Wealth 左辅

The most prosperous wealth star resides here. So, if your house and office main door or bedroom is located in this sector, you will expect to see an increase of business opportunities and more bonuses for the effort you put in at your work place. Money will come to you more easily. Thus, do not miss out this great opportunity to expand your business or investment. Occupants born in Rooster year will enjoy the good fortune.

Northeast - Joy 右弼

This star is often associated with happy news. If this star arrives at your door or room, it will bring you joyful event like engagement, wedding or the conception of child.

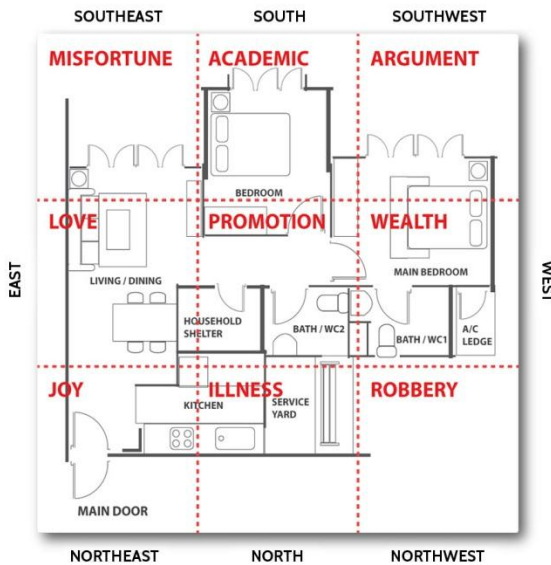

North - Illness 巨门

This is an illness star. If your main door or bedroom is located in this sector, you have to be mindful of falling ill more frequently. Also, do not place any water feature in this corner for it will activate the negative energy there. Elderly sleeping in North room should go for medical check-up.

Northwest - Robbery 破军

This star is well known for bringing hidden danger, rivalry or robberies. Therefore, please be careful of break-ins if your office or house door is located in this sector. Installing security system is the best form of preventive measures.

Dog animal sign will be affected. Children below age of 14 will also be likely to suffer from cuts by sharp object.

Southeast - Misfortune 廉贞

The misfortune star is often regarded as the disastrous star which triggers unfortunate events like accidents, bankrupts, calamities and terminal illnesses.

For those who have their stove, main door or bedroom in this sector, please be extremely cautious of your health, finances and business investment. Also, please do not put your fish tank or carry out any renovation on this part of your house or office.

South - Academic 贪狼

Locate your children in this sector if they are preparing for examinations so that they can achieve academic excellence. Working adults can also sleep in this sector should they wish to have more recognitions in their job.

Southwest - Argument 禄存

This star contains the negative energy that attracts argument and disputes. You need to be very careful of what you say or what you sign on paper. This star also causes disharmony among family members. Avoid sleeping in this sector if possible especially if you belong to Monkey animal sign.