FORECAST FOR YEAR 2012

Year of the Dragon

壬辰

Dragon 2000, 1988, 1976, 1964, 1952, 1940

Avoid speculative investment and venturing into new business as the dragon is in conflict with the Tai Sui, the ruling energy for this year. This will result in cash-flow problem and unnecessary tension among partners. You tend to be more injury-prone. Pregnant ladies and small children have to be extra mindful of falls.

Snake 2001, 1989, 1977, 1965, 1953, 1941

A year of positive energies specifically for the men who will meet a lot of helpful people and receive good career advancement. Snake people including ladies will enjoy good romance luck and relationship. A word of caution is that you need to secure your belongings whenever you are traveling as you will lose a sentimental and precious item this year.

Horse 2002, 1990, 1978, 1966, 1954, 1942

You must get yourself covered with hospitalization or travel insurance as a form of safeguard this year as there is a possibility of meeting with accident, natural disaster and serious illness when you are oversea. Do not take short cut just for the quick bucks. This will land you into unnecessary legal tussle and dispute.

Goat 2003, 1991, 1979, 1967, 1955, 1943

It is a blessed year for the ladies in terms of their pursuit in higher education, career switch and business opportunities. For the men, you will need to tread with care in all your dealings with women especially relationship issue. Do not cross the line if you are already married. If you are above age of 50, please go for your medical check-up as you are susceptible to acute cardiovascular illness.

Monkey 2004, 1992, 1980, 1968, 1956, 1944

You will have an upper hand against your opponent in any form of competition. You can also contemplate dabbling in speculative investment like forex and stock markets. Starting a business in 2012 will give you a good headstart. As the star of backstabbing is also revolving monkey people, you need to toe the line and stay away from gossips.

Rooster 2005, 1993, 1981, 1969, 1957, 1945

The energy of the dragon year and Rooster person are in harmony. This implies that you will receive very good support and help from your boss, friends and women. You are radiant and you exude very strong charm which appeals to opposite sex. However, you have to exercise self-control because the star of peach blossom tends to create sexual problem. Teenagers must be mindful of this.

Dog 2006, 1994, 1982, 1970, 1958, 1946

A very challenging year for you in all aspects of your life. This is because the dog is in direct confrontation with the energy of the dragon year. Avoid dangerous sport, avoid being a guarantor for loan, avoid going to casino to gamble and avoid starting a business with a partner. It is advisable to be prudent and conservative in your plans. This is the best solution.

Pig 2007, 1995, 1983, 1971, 1959, 1947

A very auspicious and prosperous year for the Pig. All the powerful lucky stars such as The Emperor are shining on you. Take a bold step to pursue your dream. Remarkable year for academic pursuit and examination luck too. Those seeking romance will encounter love-at-first-sight. People in leadership position will see an increase in their authority and power.

Rat 2008, 1996, 1984, 1972, 1960, 1948

The main concern this year is the recurring health problem that needs to be attended to fast. Presence of the White Tiger star usually implies blood related accident or injury. You can go for blood donation or extraction of wisdom tooth to avoid it. Parents need to pay more attention to the kids' health as a result of poor immunity. Nevertheless, rat people will still enjoy good career progression, fame and money luck with the blessing of good stars.

Ox 2009, 1997, 1985, 1973, 1961, 1949

There will be new opportunities in your career but be mentally prepared that you may need to pack and go to a new uncharted territory. Emotionally you are affected due to the unsettled feeling and sense of solitude. You will also be worrisome because of family matters relating to the elderly. Staying positive and taking up a course will help to alleviate such anxiety. You will still see the silver lining.

Tiger 2010, 1998, 1986, 1974, 1962, 1950

A year filled with movement and changes ranging from moving house, office, department, new assignment, traveling and even migration. Quite a hectic year for tiger people. Do buy travel insurance as a form of safeguard as the chances of getting into accident is very high due to the presence of negative stars like Sky Dog. This star also increases the risk of miscarriage for those who are pregnant. Be careful and you can avoid it.

Rabbit 1999, 1987, 1975, 1963, 1951, 1939

Politics in office is something you might want to watch out for. Do not be too naive. Your friend may suddenly turn out to be your foe. Fortunately, there are nobleman stars that will come in to lend you a hand when you are in trouble. Pay more attention to your kids' health as they will fall sick quite easily.
